Mr Jason Collins

Appointed 10 February 2014

Appointed 10 February 2014

Appointed 10 February 2014

Directors have been in office since the start of the financial year to the date of this report unless otherwise stated.

Company Secretary

Ray Wilson was Company Secretary at the start of the financial year. Paul Mitchell assumed the position on 21 August 2013.

Principal Activities

SurfAid, in partnership with communities and government, works to prevent disease, suffering and death through educational programs and health promotion that aim to change poor health behaviours and reduce the risk from natural disasters.

SurfAid's goal is to empower communities to help themselves and build local capacity so their improved health resilience is sustainable. We advocate health and wellbeing for all and create collaborative relationships with other stakeholder groups wherever we can so as to further sustained change in behaviour and development.

Our community-based health programs involve education in nutrition, hygiene, healthy environments, and disease prevention, including mosquito net distribution. In response to an unfortunately frequent need, we have built an award-winning capacity in Emergency Preparedness and have delivered practical, locally based Emergency Responses.

There have been no significant changes in the nature of Surf Aid International Australia Limited's principal activities during the financial year.

The company's short-term objectives are to:

- To deliver the contracted and donor-committed programs in Indonesia
- To raise sufficient funds to finance the planned programs in Indonesia
- To establish new donor contracts

The company's long-term objectives are to:

- To build recurrent income streams for programs
- To continue to build the organisational systems

Directors' Report

31 March 2014

To achieve these objectives, the company has adopted the following strategies:

- Capacity development in Indonesia, which is driving systematic improvements in program delivery, reporting and accountability.
- Fundraising initiatives such as the SurfAid Corporate Cup
- Focus on DFAT and New Zealand MFAT relationships and deliverables.

Key Performance Measures

SurfAid measures its own performance through the use of both quantitative and qualitative benchmarks. The benchmarks are used by the directors to assess the financial sustainability of the company and whether the short-term and long-term objectives are being achieved.

Achievement of budget income

Expenses kept to budget

Delivery of budgeted funds to international programs

Operating Results and Review of Operations

The net deficit for the year of Surf Aid International Australia Limited amounted to $-361,388 (2013: -$81,854).

After balance date events

No other matters or circumstances have arisen since the end of the financial year which significantly affected or may significantly affect the operations of Surf Aid International Australia Limited, the results of those operations or the state of affairs of Surf Aid International Australia Limited in future financial years.

Environmental Issues

Surf Aid International Australia Limited's operations are not subject to significant environmental regulation under the laws of the Commonwealth and State.

Non-audit services

The board of directors, in accordance with advice from the audit committee, is satisfied that the provision of non-audit services during the year is compatible with the general standard of independence for auditors imposed by the Corporations Act 2001. The directors are satisfied that the services disclosed below did not compromise the external auditor's independence for the following reasons:

- all non audit services are reviewed and approved by the audit committee prior to commencement to ensure they do not adversely affect the integrity and objectivity of the auditor; and
- the nature of the services provided do not compromise the general principles relating to auditor independence as set out in the APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants.

Insurance of Officers

During the financial year, Management Liability Insurance was held with AON
